

Hello from The Well Teacher!

Recently, the BCTF generously provided all of the Locals in BC with copies of The Well Teacher. Their goal was to support BCTF members in building wellness and resilience, recognizing the constant demands on BCTF members and the commitment they give to their professions. The Well Teacher is a comprehensive resource guide that gives BCTF members information and strategies that will enable them to better understand their wellness, make informed decisions, and remain in the classroom. It covers the full range of wellness challenges that we hear about from educators every day. The response to The Well Teacher has been overwhelmingly positive from teachers, administrators, locals, districts, and benefits providers across the country.

We are tremendously grateful for the support The Well Teacher has received from the BCTF. As a result, from now until June 15, 2019, we would like to provide you with a special BCTF member promotional offer, which includes a rate reduction on the book price as well as free shipping.

As you know, shipping in Canada can be quite costly, especially to remote areas. So, in order to achieve the biggest discount for individual members on the purchase of The Well Teacher, we would ship all orders made in each local to a single location. By shipping orders in bulk to your Local Association office, we will be able to discount the purchase price of the book as well as offer completely free shipping – thus allowing you to purchase The Well Teacher for a total of only $35.00 + GST per copy. You also have access to all of The Well Teacher activities and worksheets for free on our website.

We are offering this special, shipping-inclusive rate of only $35.00 + GST until June 15, 2019. All orders received during the promotional window will be collated and shipped to your local association office starting on June 16, 2019. To take advantage of this offer, please visit our website:
